

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XVII.

STANFORD, KY. TUESDAY, JULY 16, 1889.

NO. 45

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

Our merchants universally complain of dull trade and especially slow collections.

The camp meeting and Sam Jones took many a Danvillian to High Bridge Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Redford has sold his restaurant to Lucas & Scott, who will operate it under the above name.

Mr. A. B. Robertson, who has been a sufferer from rheumatism for some months, has improved sufficiently to travel and is now in the East.

Rev. F. J. Cheek, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Paris, has been granted a vacation by his doctor, and is spending a part of it here with his mother's family.

In last Friday's issue our report read that Hon. M. J. Durham would speak at Mintonville on Monday, July 22, when it should have read Monticello for that day and date. He is not billed to speak at Mintonville on any date as yet.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Welsh, Sr., have been confined to their beds and rooms for the past week, but are improving at this time. Mr. Welsh is one of our oldest citizens and business men, and his illness has enlisted the interest of every one.

Petit thieves are numerous in and around Danville at all seasons of the year, but just now they have assumed the taste of an aesthetical nature and allow no flowers conveniently located to go unmolested. This has occurred quite frequently of late, especially in the yards along Fourth street. They at first took only the blossoms, but afterwards were not content without possessing both "root and branch."

The buildings of Hon. M. J. Durham and Mr. H. E. Samuel, on Broadway, are nearing completion and will be additional ornaments to that street, which is one of the prettiest in Danville. The addition to Gilcher's Hotel and the D. and D. Institute buildings are nearing completion. When the Gilcher addition is complete it will stand second to no hotel in the State, outside of Louisville and Lexington.

Mr. Ed Hughes, of Paris, is off on a vacation and is at his mother's in this city. Dr. McMurtry will not go to Louisville to live, as was stated in a former letter, but will continue to reside in Danville, and Danville is glad of it. Mr. Wm. Briggs left for an extended business trip in the South, on Sunday night, in the interest of a New York house, which he has represented for the past two or three years.

Prof. Wm. Yerkes, of Paris, is visiting relatives in Danville. Mr. H. E. Samuel is able to attend to his duties in the drug store, after quite a painful illness. Col. Joe Moore, of the Advocate, went to High Bridge Sunday to see Sam Jones, the "pullets" and "Falcon's" "devil's step-ladder," which was to be "gilded" on that day. Mr. Samuel G. Boyle, of the Kentucky Stock Farm, of Lexington, made his usual Sunday visit to Danville on the 14th.

The Sullivan-Kilrain fight has been the theme with men and boys for two weeks past, and to illustrate the evil effects of such things it is only necessary to cite a single instance, in which two Danville boys, aged respectively 14 and 15 years, desired to measure strength, when a third party bought a belt for which they were to fight. So on last Friday at noon, all things had been arranged for the "mill." A 20-foot ring had been laid out, referees, spongers and bottle-holders chosen; the young gladiators appeared stripped to the waist, and at the call of time went valiantly into the fight. Your correspondent did not witness the combat, but learns from a spectator that it would have been a "fight to the finish" had not the proprietor of the premises appeared and put an end to hostilities. We are told that blood was drawn by one of the imitators; that they fought with determination and are not yet satisfied, so had arranged for a meeting Saturday. If Saturday's fight came off we have not heard of it. The names of the boys are reserved that they may not have even more serious encounters with their respective parents, yet they richly deserve flogging.

MT. SALEM.

Mr. Bennett S. Tinsley died of consumption, at the residence of Mr. Tol Ross, near Mt. Salem, on the 13th. He had reached the ripe age of 70 or more years and was a man of strong convictions and possessed several prominent traits, among which were his powerful observing faculties and a very retentive memory. About the year 1840 he was a partner in a flourishing tailoring establishment in Stanford. He lost his wife several years ago and not being a good financier the last years of his life he was in very reduced circumstances. He was connected with the best families in the county and respected by everybody.

Assistant Secretary Bussy has decided that an attorney can recover from a pensioner the amount specified in his contract regardless of the amount of pension granted, provided the fee is not in excess of that allowed by law.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

Miss Lula Bronston is visiting Miss Juliet Gill. Mrs. Dr. W. S. Elkin, who has been dangerously ill, is very greatly improved. Dr. Elkin was telegraphed for to Atlanta and is now here.

When the case against Col. John Henderson, for the shooting of Jesse Smallwood, was called last Saturday, he waived examination and was held in bond to appear before circuit court.

That was a happy day for all when the revenue boys met with their chief, ex-Collector Bronston, at Shakertown and surprised him with the presentation of a fine gold watch and chain. His chief deputy, Capt. W. S. Miller, originated the scheme, but was himself more astonished than his chief when the "revenue boys of Mercer" presented him with one of the handsomest canes ever made.

Charles W. Sweeney died of apoplexy, in his 38th year, at his home in this city, Saturday morning at 7 o'clock. For several weeks he had been complaining of headache, which affected him only slightly sometimes, but at others very severely. It was regarded as a troublesome case of neuralgia, until Thursday night, when he received a stroke from which he recovered for only a few hours, when the second one came on producing death in a few hours. His funeral was preached by Elder J. C. Frank at the Church at 3:30 p.m., Sunday, after which his remains were buried in Lancaster cemetery. The procession was one of the largest we have ever seen. Charley has been associated in business with his father for a number of years and was a successful and popular merchant. He was a good citizen—a loving and faithful husband and father. His wife and two children, who are overwhelmingly distressed, have the sympathy of all. Any attempt at comforting words at a time like this, must be poor indeed, but our best is to commend them to the God whose ways are all ways of pleasantness and whose paths are all paths of peace. May the God of pity and all grace comfort them as they lay their widowed and orphaned heads in loneliness upon their pillow to-night.

CRAB ORCHARD

Another ball at Dripping Springs Saturday and Saturday night.

There was to have been a private picnic at Brown Spring Saturday, but it was stopped by the rain.

Quite an interesting debate took place at the T. M. Holmes school-house Saturday night on the subject, "Is Prohibition the Best Way to Control the Liquor Traffic as Compared with High License?" The affirmative won, according to the decision of the judges. Squire Chappell spoke on the negative, A. H. Noaks, R. L. Davis and W. K. Buchanan on the affirmative. Chappell was assisted by John Warren and Mr. Trumbull.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. O'Bryan, of Stanford, are the guests of Mr. W. R. Dillon. Gen. Gano was visiting Mrs. Catherine McAlister. Miss Dora Wilmore is visiting Miss Irene Dillon. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coffey have moved from Danville and occupy Dr. Armentd's house. Miss Minnie Thomas, of Indiana, is the guest of Mrs. J. A. Newland. Mrs. W. T. Grant and two nieces, from Louisville, are at the Springs. Both Crab Orchard Springs and Dripping Springs have a goodly number of guests and the festivities of the season are fairly under headway.

R. C. Warren and Bro. Montgomery clashed swords on the rostrum here Saturday. Dick was pleasant as you please and showed his confidence in the success of the principles he maintains, while Bro. Montgomery, with only a ghost of a chance, with the prospective nomination of a republican sometime, did not know exactly what would follow, sugared the temperance element of the republican party (which is very few). We think that Dick, though he has no wings to fly with, will get there all the same. One thing is certain, that although an assumption of angelic purity belongs to the prohlibs, they all are no more or no less than men. The main point is not to meet the demands of angels, but of men, with the good and bad mixed as we find them that is best for man. Dick made friends here.

The record of railroad construction shows 1,410 miles of new main-line track built in the first six months of this year in the United States against 2,980 in the corresponding period of last year.

A Muhlenberg man is dying from the effects of blood poisoning produced by the removal of a corn from his toe. The amputation of his leg was resorted to save him, but without avail.

Eggs and chickens are too valuable to be allowed to go to waste when Gantner's chicken cholera cure is sold and warranted by McRoberts & Stagg.

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoeal salve in the house, as cramps, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended to at once. One bottle of Beggs' Diarrhoea Balsam will do more good in cases of the kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

On Thursday night some one poison ed a horse belonging to James Butner, of color, who lives near town, and a few weeks ago one of his hogs was poisoned.

One of the most important cases disposed of in the common pleas court here last week was that of John Woods' heirs against the Pitman Coal Co. and others. Judgment in favor of defendants.

Some wretch with vile purposes in view placed a steel rail across the track at the north end of the switch at Williamsburg Thursday night, but fortunately the north-bound train had not gained sufficient headway to be thrown from the track when it struck it.

There was more preaching in London Sunday than has been here in one day for some time. Dr. A. C. Graves, a Baptist minister of Lebanon, preached in the court-house, where he has been conducting a series of meetings for the past week; Rev. O. F. Duvall occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church and Elder Stephen Collier preached at the Reform church. There was also quarterly meeting at the colored Methodist church.

J. W. Woodall, who stabbed Bob Barnes and his son a few weeks ago, was tried before Judge Baker Saturday and held in a bond of $200 for his appearance in circuit court. There is also a bench warrant here for him issued from Rockcastle circuit court. Jess Mullins was also arraigned before Judge Baker the same day charged with breach of the peace and carrying concealed weapons. Five dollars for the first offense and $25 and 10 days imprisonment for the latter was the judgment of the court. Jesse has a good many law suits and they generally go "agin" him. It has not been long since he returned from Frankfort.

About one o'clock last Thursday two thieves entered the house of David Graybeal, a wealthy citizen who lives one mile west of town, and stole $50. Only one of them entered the house at first who tried to sell Mrs. Graybeal a book, but she soon discovered that he was blacked, which frightened her so that she immediately left the house and ran to where the men were at work and she saw another man enter the house just as she left. When Mr. Graybeal returned the thieves had gone, but had robbed him of about $50. A man named Nathan Jenkins was arrested Saturday and placed in jail and there is strong evidence of his guilt. His son-in-law, named Dickey, is supposed to have been with him. They are both tough customers and any community would do well to get rid of them.

Primary Election by Ballot to Nominate Democratic Candidates.

The Democratic County Committee met pursuant to call on Saturday, July 13th, and resolved that a primary election be held on the third Saturday in October next to select nominees for the county offices to be voted for at the next August election after that date. A poll shall be opened at every voting place in the county except in two Stanford precincts, which will be taken at one voting place to be held at the court-house. The vote shall be by ballot and shall commence and close at the same hours as the regular elections. Democrats and minors of democratic proclivities, who will attain their majority by the next August election, shall be allowed to vote, and the names of the voters shall be recorded in a poll-book. The ballot-boxes must be sealed and delivered by the clerks of the election to the county chairman by the following Monday, when the ballots will be counted and the result declared by the committee.

T. D. NEWLAND, Chm.

H. BROWN, Secy.

Hon. R. C. Warren

Democratic candidate for Representative, will speak at the following times and places:

Higgins' School-House, Tuesday, 10th;

Maywood, Wednesday, July 17th;

Boone's School-House, Thursday, July 18th;

Hubble, Friday, July 19th;

McKinney, Saturday, July 20th;

Milledgeville, Saturday, July 27th;

Prestersville, on Saturday, August 3d.

At 2 o'clock P. M. at each place.

Time will be divided with other candidates for the office.

When the summer's rose has faded What shall make it fair again?

When the face with pain is shaded What shall make it fair again?

Never shall a blighten brighten After blighted by the frost,

But the load of pain may lighten,

And we need not count as lost

all the pleasure of life when the wife and mother, upon whom the happiness of home so largely depends,

is afflicted with the delicate diseases peculiar to women.

It is terrible to contemplate the misery existing in our midst because of the prevalence of these diseases. It is high time that all of us should know that there is one sure remedy for all female complaints, and that is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Do not allow ill-health to fasten itself upon you. Ward it off by the use of this standard remedy. But if it has already crept in, put it to rout. You can do it, by the use of the Favorite Prescription. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it will be returned.

For biliousness, sick headache, indigestion, and constipation, take Dr. Pierce's Pellets.

The Pride of Woh.

A clear, pearly and transparent skin is always a sign of pure blood, and all persons troubled with dark, greasy, yellow or blotched skin can rest as-surely as their blood is out of order. A few doses of Beggs' Blood Purifier & Blood Maker will remove the cause and the skin will become clear and transparent. Try it, and if satisfaction is not given it will cost you nothing. It is fully warranted.

A. R. Penny, Druggist.

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoeal salve in the house, as cramps,

diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended to at once. One bottle of Beggs'

Diarrhoea Balsam will do more good in cases of the kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoeal salve in the house, as cramps,

diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if

not attended to at once. One bottle of Beggs'

Diarrhoea Balsam will do more good in cases of the kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoeal salve in the house, as cramps,

diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if

not attended to at once. One bottle of Beggs'

Diarrhoea Balsam will do more good in cases of the kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoeal salve in the house, as cramps,

diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if

not attended to at once. One bottle of Beggs'

Diarrhoea Balsam

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., JULY 16, 1889

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For State Treasurer,
STEPHEN G. SHARPE

FOR STATE SENATOR,
R. J. BRECKINRIDGE, OF BOYLE.

For Representative, Lincoln County,
RICHARD C. WARREN.

WHEN Sullivan reached Nashville on his way from the fight, a squad of police men were on hand to arrest him. He showed fight at first, but a pistol or two pointed at his carcass quieted him down and he was taken to the caliboose. The arrest was made on a telegram from the governor of Mississippi, who offered a $1,000 reward for the slugger. Habeas corpus proceedings being at once instituted by Sullivan's attorneys, he was soon released on the ground that he was illegally held, the offense of prize fighting being simply a misdemeanor and not extraditable. Kilrain came near being arrested in another State, but getting wind of the attempt he and his party took to the woods and eluded the officers. According to the Mississippi law prize fighting is punishable by fine of not less than $500 or more than $1,000 or confinement in jail a year, or both, but as Gov. Lowry permitted his birds to escape from his bailiwick, he can hardly expect more now than a little advertising of himself as one of "them fellows what locks up a stable after the horse has been stolen."

WHILE entertaining an opinion, formed by a study of the question from results obtained by a trial of the several methods, that there is a more practical way of dealing with the whisky question than by prohibition, we have no fight to make against anyone who honestly believes to the contrary. It is not the prohibitionists we are fighting in this campaign, but the party which is parading under that name—a party which is not only arraigned against the one to which we owe allegiance, but which inculcates doctrines entirely repugnant to our mind—woman suffrage and the disfranchisement of voters, who are so unfortunate as to be uneducated. We are not fighting temperance or temperance men, but we do and shall continue to fight the prohibition party with the same earnestness we have always fought the republican party.

If people are ever excusable for taking the law into their hands, surely those of Charleston, S. C., would be if they would take murderer McDow and break his cowardly neck. Not content with making himself generally odious since his farcical acquittal of the assassination of editor Dawson by his brazen air and threatening words, he has begun a series of persecutions of the widow of the man he slew, which further proves his craven nature. If half the reports of his actions are true, the South Carolinians will be false to their manhood if they permit the miserable scoundrel to further molest the helpless family of his victim or air his putrid carcass in the presence of decent people.

BECAUSE the railroads would not fall down and worship or rather haul the G. A. R. for next to nothing, the grand mogul of that republican attachment, has issued an order that none but delegates attend the annual powwow at Milwaukee, thereby shutting the roads out of the travel they might have gotten. The G. A. R. may own the government and its treasury, but we are glad to note that the railroads do not bow yet to their authority, though it is not telling how soon we all shall have to, if its presumption is not checked.

THE Covington Commonwealth gets after our dear old Polk in this wise: "The editor of the Capital announces that 'when he has anything to say he speaks right out in meeting.' To those who know Grandpa Johnson this statement is entirely unnecessary. He not only speaks out in meeting, but if there is no meeting he will call one, and if an audience is not obtainable he will crack loose at a barn door or any other broad object in sight."

GEORGE BABER, late a Louisville editor, has been recommissioned as a member of the Board of Pension Appeals for four years more. He used to be and still claims to be a democrat, but he is so pronounced an anti tariff reform man as to induce Harrison to believe he is not much better than a republican.

A DISPATCH from Nicholasville says that the storekeepers and gaugers held a farewell meeting at Shakerstown, where they had a swell banquet and a big time. The boys presented ex-Collector Branson a handsome gold watch and Deputy Collector W. S. Miller a beautiful engraved gold-headed cane—both deserved testimonials to capital officers.

THOMAS CRAVENS has taken the position of assistant editor of the Jellico News and will as usual make things hum. Cravens is a good writer with a propensity for stirring up the hornets, and we are glad to know that he is again out with his stick.

THE prohibitionists are circulating with great avidity a report that Mr. Warren has been forced to withdraw from the canvass and that another man will be substituted for him. There never was a bolder-faced, more brazen and unreasonable lie than this. The democratic party is in entire sympathy with Mr. Warren, who is not only in the race to stay, but to WIN. The "I am holier than thou" crowd should remember that while there is no special commandment as to prohibition, there is one expressly against lying, and that they should not let the wish be father to the thought that Mr. Warren will not stay with them till the cows come home. He is making votes daily and is going to be elected as sure as the 5th of August comes. Lincoln will then have a representative worthy of her and one whose ability and integrity will count for the good of the State at large in the next General Assembly. Hurrah for Dick!

It is given out from the Commissioner's office that hereafter that official will make assignments of storekeepers and gaugers himself instead of delegating it to the collectors. So far so good, but the further statement that he is going to assign them to districts other than those in which they reside or from which they were appointed is going to cause some old fashioned kicking.

EDITORS STOWERS, Given and Duncan are under arrest at Elizabethton, charged with endeavoring to excite mob violence by giving expression to public opinion, which is almost unanimous, that Will Stowers murdered his young wife. The trial is set for next Friday, but it is likely nothing will be done. The public is decidedly with the editors.

THE case of Wickliffe's executors vs. Breckinridge's heirs, after being in the courts for 76 years and costing half a million dollars, was Saturday decided by the Fayette court in favor of the heirs. Disputed land titles caused the suit. The result adds further proof to other experiences that it is best to give up a good deal than go to law.

THE Lebanon Enterprise is moved to remark that a genteel cowhiding would frequently do some judges a great deal of good. Lookout, Bro. Hill, Judge Boyd is down that way and may think you have personal reference to him. He might as well indict you for that as anything we have said about him.

NEWS CONDENSED.

—In Lewis county Edward Hawley shot himself dead.

—Near Paducah a vicious sow killed a little child of C. B. Robinson.

—Harrodsburg has indefinitely postponed her waterworks proposition.

—James Bridgeford, aged 82, for years a leading Louisville merchant, is dead.

—Tennessee broke the necks of two of her murderers Saturday, both colored.

—Three prisoners were roasted to death by the burning of an Oregon jail.

—The French celebrated the 100th anniversary of the fall of the Bastile Sunday.

—Barney Gibbs, a brakeman on the L. & N. was crushed to death at Horse Cave.

—John W. Cobbs has been appointed Surveyor of Customs for the Port of Paducah.

—The Consolidated Oil Co., at St. Joe, Mo., lost $75,000 by a fire started by lightning.

—Tom Marcus, Indian Inspector, has been relieved and will return to Catlettsburg.

—Several lives were lost in a flood caused by a cloud burst at Fort Robinson, Nebraska.

—Swan Burns, the negro who helped kill a white man at Iuka, Miss., was hanged by a mob.

—The hanging of Dawes, the uxorcide at Birmingham, has been postponed pending an appeal.

—The earnings of the Queen & Crescent fell off $12,000 in June and a reduction of force has been ordered.

—At Iuka, Miss., a mob took Prince Luster, a negro rasher, from jail and hung him in the public square.

—Sylvester Johnson, of New Haven, one of Kentucky's best and best-known men, died in Louisville Saturday.

—In Boston Dr. W. P. White shot his wife and committed suicide, because he charged she had ceased to love him.

—Dr. Hourigan has been granted a new trial and his sentence for life for killing his brother-in-law doesn't go.

—In New York last week there were 1,187 deaths, the greatest number of the year. Hot weather causes the increase.

—It will require 1,000 men four years to build the new Congressional library at Washington, the granite of which is to come from New Hampshire.

—In a duel between M. Belz, Secretary of the Boulangist Committee at Marseilles, and M. Pierrotti, an Opportunist, Sunday, near Paris, strange to say, the latter was killed.

—Two small streams near Baltimore were swollen to such an extent by a water spout that two dams were burst and the water swept down in a wall 20 feet high, drowning several people and sweeping away much valuable property.

—Thomas Fulton and Miss Ella Ault were run down and killed by a B. & O. freight train near Cleveland, O. A part of Fulton's body was carried nine miles on a locomotive pilot before the engineer discovered that there had been an accident.

—W. H. Sherman, Buffalo's largest grain dealer, has fraudulently obtained $2,000,000 and gone to Canada.

—Wiley Matthews, the escaped Bald Knobber leader, is reported to have killed two men in Arkansas, Thursday.

—J. B. Thompson's distillery at Harrodsburg has just closed down after making 5,000 barrels or about 250,000 gallons.

—Wanamaker proposes a rate of a cent for ten words for telegraph service for the government. One cent a word is now the rate.

—Wm. Wedington, colored, was hung at Charlotte, N. C., for the murder of a policeman. A son of the murdered man witnessed the execution.

—Mr. James Bobbitt, an old and well-known citizen of this county, died at his home near the Flat Lick church on the 6th.—Somerset Reporter.

—Augustus Rosenberg murdered Mrs. Smith and two of her children and seriously wounded two others, at Boston, and while escaping from the scene of the tragedy, met death in a most peculiar manner.

—A New York doctor, intent upon suicide, swallowed enough morphine to kill two or three men, and then took notes of his condition and feelings for the next twelve hours, until, finally, he had to blow his brains out to complete the job.

—Mason, Hoge & King, of Frankfort, were awarded the first two miles of the L. & N., beyond Cumberland Gap, which includes a 900-foot tunnel. The next 8 miles went to McGrann, a Pennsylvania contractor. The work is to be finished in seven months.

—The members of the G. A. R. threaten to abandon their encampment at Milwaukee because the railroads won't carry them there for next to nothing. It's hard to convince these fellows that they don't own the railroads as well as the rest of the country.

—The Otis Iron and Steel Company, at Cleveland, O., has been sold to an English syndicate for $4,500,000 and negotiations are now being made for the purchase of the H. H. Warner proprietary medicine plant at Rochester, N. Y., the price asked being $5,000,000.

—Mrs. Murphy died suddenly at Birmingham from pains in the stomach, and a post mortem revealed more than a pound of wood pulp and 13 yards of cloth, in pieces, in it. Physicians say that the wood is from the tooth brushes she chewed up in dipping snuff, but they are at a loss to account for the cloth.

—In addition to Walker Landrum at Lancaster, Collector Burnam has appointed deputies as follows: Ben C. Neal, in Estill county, F. V. Logan, at Somerset, Sam Kash, Perry county, and Reuben Patrick, Magoffin county. The salary of the office has been decreased from $1,300 to $900 per annum. The applications for minor positions number over 1,000.—Register.

—A tramp went to the house of Misses Angelina and Stella Cundiff, near Somerset, at night, and when one of them went to the door he struck her in the face with a rock tied in a bag, breaking her nose. Her cries and that of her sister aroused the neighbors and the scamp was frightened off. Since then two suspicious characters have been lodged in jail for the offense.

—To the People of Lincoln County.

As you know, my father, J. A. Bogle, was elected by you in August, 1886 school commissioner for this county for a term of four years, ending Monday 1890. He has recently died and an election is now ordered for the 1st Monday in August to fill the vacancy of one year thus created.

I am assured by gentlemen of the legal profession that I am eligible to the office. I have had four years' experience as a teacher, and, indeed, on account of my father's failing health, I have had considerable experience, acquired by assisting him in the practical duties of commissioner. I may, therefore, I hope, without egotism, claim to be competent to fill the office without discredit to myself or to the people.

I beg to announce myself as a candidate to fill out my father's unexpired term, and I do so in this way because I cannot go to you personally to solicit your vote, nor would you, I am sure, wish to have me do so. I should be truly proud and grateful to you for permission to act as my father's successor during the brief remainder of his term, and to earn for his family the salary to which he would have been entitled had he lived.

I can only promise, as I unreservedly do, in case I receive this proof of your confidence and sympathy, to do my utmost to make for you as faithful a servant as was my father. One could not well, I am bold to say, do or promise more.

—Respectfully, KATE BOGLE.

—MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Neel Glenn, the bright young editor of the Madisonville Hustler, was married last week to Miss Mollie Dulin, a Hopkinsville beauty.

—Miss Gwendoline Caldwell, well-known in Louisville society, is shortly to marry Prince Murat, a grandson of the ill-fated King of Naples and a widow of 55.

—Charles Suttler cut Mrs. Mollie Marvin three times with a hatchet, at Shelbyville, Ind., because she refused to take him for her ninth husband. She had been married and divorced eight times.

CREAT

CLEARANCE SALE!

—AT—

THE LOUISVILLE STORE.

We still continue to Offer Extraordinary Inducements

To buyers of Dry Goods; Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Trunks, Carpets, Matting, &c., as

WE MUST REDUCE OUR STOCK

For the summer. Many people possessed of good taste and cash have made favorable investments, both for the present and future. We invite you to visit our store, as our stock is in Every Department Complete.

THE LOUISVILLE STORE.

Main st., Stanford.

M. SALINGER, Manager.

Wall Paper,

Wall Paper,

Wall Paper,

—AT—

M'ROBERTS & STAGG'S.

A. R. PENNY, DRUGGIST & JEWELER.

DRUGS, BOOKS, STATIONERY.

FANCY ARTICLES, &c.

Physicians prescriptions accurately compounded.

THE LARGEST STOCK OF WATCHES,

CLOCKS, JEWELRY & SILVERWARE.

Ever brought to this market. Prices lower than the lowest. Watches, Clocks and Jewelry Repaired on short notice and warranted.

B. K. WEAREN, Furniture and Undertakers' Goods!

STANFORD, KY.

The Largest, Cheapest and Best Assorted Stock of Wall Paper, Border, Ceiling Decorations and Window Shades

Ever exhibited in Stanford. Furniture and Undertakers' Stock is full and complete. We call special attention to our

INDESTRUCTIBLE BURIAL CASKET,

The best Casket of the kind ever invented.

Embalming under the most approved method when desired.

J. C. McClary, Salesmen and Embalmer.

NEW FURNITURE STORE!

MACK HUFFMAN, PROP.

Will keep constantly on hand a large and select line of Furniture and Undertaker's Goods. My prices will be as low as such goods can be bought in the cities. Give me a trial and you will be convinced that I sell lower than the lowest.

Semi-Weekly Interior Journal

STANFORD, KY., JULY 16, 1889

E. C. WALTON, Bus. Manager

MEANS BUSINESS.

COME and settle your account. A. R. Penny.

WATCHES and jewelry repaired and warranted. A. R. Penny.

The best place to buy drugs, patent medicines and toilet articles is at A. R. Penny's.

Buy your school books, ink, tablets, paper, pencils and school supplies of all kinds from A. R. Penny.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mrs. N. A. Tyree is visiting relatives in Madison.

Miss Bessie Pennington is with friends at Somersett.

Mr. W. H. Higgins has returned from a trip to Louisville.

Miss Rose Richards is visiting relatives in Harrodsburg.

R. W. Walker is helping Jailer Owens while he is out canvassing.

Mrs. A. A. McKinney is at last out of danger and rapidly recovering.

Miss Cettie Thurmond is visiting her sister, Mrs. May, at Somersett.

EVERYBODY will be glad to hear that Mr. R. E. Barrow is improving.

HARRY GEER, who has been very ill with typhoid fever, is convalescing.

Miss Emma Leavell, of Garrard, is visiting at Mrs. George D. Weare's.

Mrs. J. B. Crowder, of Fort Worth, Texas, is visiting at Mr. H. C. Rupley's.

Mr. J. W. Sallee and Dr. A. S. Cook have been to Middleborough prospecting.

Mrs. J. Carver Jones, of Kansas City, arrived Friday and is the guest of her mother.

Miss Mary V. Carpenter announces that she will open an art school here Sept. 3.

Miss Nannie Marrs left Saturday to spend a few weeks with her parents at Campbellsville.

Rev. George Hunt was accompanied by his wife the last trip, and they were guests of Mrs. Robert McAlister.

MISSES KATE and PATTIE ALCORN and Mary Bruce, in charge of Kindred Alcorn, went to Somersett yesterday.

Mr. Elijah Withers, of Cincinnati, has engaged rooms for his handsome wife at the Myers House for the heated term.

PROF. W. E. SHAW, editor of the Mt. Vernon Educational Evangelist and an accomplished teacher, is here on business.

MISSES DOLLIE WILLIAMS and Belle Cook accompanied Prof. J. M. Hubbard to the National Educational Association at Nashville.

JUDGE BOYD, the mighty man from the mountains, was a passenger on Saturday's train, but we magnanimously permitted him to go in peace.

Mr. W. A. OWENS, of London, is down to have Maj. H. A. Evans plot some coal lands for him. Mr. Owens has tamed down and got to be a mild, a mannered man as ever lived.

PROF. E. TARRANT was here yesterday and took home with him a first-class certificate as public school teacher. He begins the Mt. Salem school to-day and will also favor the INTERIOR JOURNAL with letters during his leisure moments.

CITY AND VICINITY.

T. J. HATCHER is in fine shape for work. Call on him for anything in the boot and shoe line.

THE time is up and I need the money due me and must have it. Please come in at once and settle. H. C. Rupley.

THE tax books for 1889 are now ready. Everybody will please come forward and pay his taxes at once. T. D. Newland, Sheriff.

IT continues to rain every day. Those who have kept a record say that yesterday was the 12th consecutive rainy Danville county court day.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—A man named Kemp was killed and two others were severely stunned by lightning Friday on the farm of Mr. Peyton, in Casey, where they were in a field at work.

THE firm of Metcalf & Foster having been dissolved, are very anxious to settle the firm business and all parties knowing themselves indebted to us will please call and settle at once. Metcalf & Foster.

TO TEACHERS.—Owing to a misunderstanding between Mr. Bogle and the conductor of the institute as to the time of holding the same, and also for other good reasons, the institute will not be held until August 12th. W. F. McCla- ry, Acting Supt.

THE advertisement that Bradley and Colson would speak here Saturday appears to have been a scheme to draw a crowd to the republican convention. Colson, at least, had no idea of coming, as he was billed to speak that night in Louisville and did so.

SOLD OUT.—Dr. Lee F. Huffman has sold the good will of his dentistry here to Drs. Morgan & Penny and will shortly leave for Colorado, where he goes for the benefit of Mrs. Huffman's health. He desires to settle up his business here and earnestly asks all indebted to him to settle at once.

CIDER mills at Higgins & McKinney's.

WE give a good linen school satchel with every pair of shoes. Severance & Son.

BIG ORDER.—Mr. M. Salinger made an order yesterday on Eastern merchants for $5,000 worth of clothing.

LIGHTNING struck the depot at Gilbert's Creek Thursday evening, setting fire to some of the freight, but agent Gooch put it out before much damage was done.

SOC OWENS writes that the Cumberland Falls Hotel is rapidly filling up and that this week will see it full. Fishing is good. One man caught 35 fine bass the day before he wrote.

THE RESULT.—Of the 52 teachers examined by Miss Kate Bogle and Prof. S. J. Pulliam, 6 were awarded first class certificates; 17 second and 11 third while two failed to get certificates.

PROF. W. F. NILES is announced in this issue as an independent candidate for school superintendent. He has considerable reputation as a teacher and appears to be capable and qualified.

MR. GEO. D. HOPPER has another boy at his house that he says is a real John Sullivan in dimensions, but it is dollars to cents he'll not name him for the bruiser. Mother and babe do well.

IT will be seen that the committee adopted the ballot system of voting in the primary. We do not believe it will work and that it will be changed after sufficient thought is given the question.

THE presence of so many prohibitionists at the republican convention may mean that they are satisfied with Mr. Ward's prohibition record and may swap Bro. Montgomery off for him. This is merely a surmise, however.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

TWELVE colored teachers offered for the full examination Friday and four on civil government. One man, G. W. Haynes, who passed by answering 18 of the 20 questions, was taken with a hemorrhage immediately afterwards and like to have bled to death.

THE most terrific thunder storm witnessed here for a long time occurred Friday night. The lightning was almost continuous, followed so quickly by deafening reports, as to make one think the house he was in had been struck. Strange to say, however, nothing was struck in town that we heard of. A heavy rain fell, which continued at intervals all day Saturday.

SOME of the colored delegates, we are told, objected to the nomination of a man with Reese Ward's record on the prohibition question and withdrew from the caucus. A dozen or more hurried for Dick Warren after the convention and said they were still for him. They do not think that Ward, who has voted for prohibition four times, will "tote fair" with them, no matter what he promises.

THERE was quite a full attendance at the democratic committee meeting Saturday and considerable business was transacted. Owing to the fact that they are candidates, Messrs. T. W. Varnon, J. N. Menefer and J. B. Paxton resigned as members of the committee and D. W. Vandever, E. P. Woods and J. A. Hammonds were named in their steads. After a full discussion of the question, the committee fixed on the 3d Saturday in October for a primary election to nominate candidates for county offices to be filled at the August election 1890. Other matters were attended to but they were not made public.

THERE was quite a full attendance at the democratic committee meeting Saturday and considerable business was transacted. Owing to the fact that they are candidates, Messrs. T. W. Varnon, J. N. Menefer and J. B. Paxton resigned as members of the committee and D. W. Vandever, E. P. Woods and J. A. Hammonds were named in their steads. After a full discussion of the question, the committee fixed on the 3d Saturday in October for a primary election to nominate candidates for county offices to be filled at the August election 1890. Other matters were attended to but they were not made public.

ARRESTED THE WRONG MAN.—In our last issue we told of the arrest of John Burton, night switchman at Rowland, by Sheriff Matt Moore and Jailer J. L. Jones, of Whitley, on a charge of stealing. It turned out that Burton was not the man wanted and he was released. He came at once to County Attorney Carpenter and a warrant charging the officers with false arrest and imprisonment was sworn out and forwarded to Whitley. The penalty is from one to 20 years in the penitentiary. Mr. Burton has also, through Miller & Owsley brought suit for $2,000 damages against the officers, who seem to be in for it for a while at least.

EXPLANATORY.—We learn that some of the republicans profess to believe that we went to their convention for the purpose of raising a row and breaking it up, if possible. Such a suggestion is too idiotic for discussion, but perhaps an explanation is due. We went to the convention solely for the purpose of getting for publication anything of interest to the public that might transpire and with ill-feelings towards no one. Under the impulse of indignation at what we thought a deliberate attempt at an insult we promptly resented a remark made by Lawyer Davison in his speech. He disclaimed any reference to us, and that was the end of it. We had no thought or intention of being discourteous to the body, and may have acted too hastily, but what occurred might have happened in court or in church, circumstances being the same.

DICK TATE has at last been located. Preacher Bolling says he is in "Canada" and he ought to know.

PLEASE call and settle your accounts, as they have been due since July 1st. I need the money. Kate Dudderar.

THE storm Sunday evening blew the top off one of Mr. John Bright's barns and played havoc with some corn fields, which were leveled to the ground.

IT seems that the troops will not come to Crab Orchard. The Second and Third Regiments will go to Grayson in August and the Louisville Legion, having had its outing at the New York Centennial, will not go anywhere.

WHO IS MR. WARD?—This question is being asked pretty freely and we answer it as best we can. He is rather a recent acquisition to our population, lives at Crab Orchard and is a clever and sociable old soul, fond of his toddy, but desirous, if his votes for prohibition in four counties are an index, of cutting it off from other people. One would hardly imagine he is good legislative timber, or that he would have any aspiration to pose as a law-maker, but we really hope he will accept the republican nomination tendered him. He has not yet done so, though Mr. Warren requests us to invite him to his appointments so that he can tell the people how he stands, if determines to make the race.

THE Stanford Female College faculty has been selected and is as follows: Prof. J. M. Hubbard, President, Mental and Moral Science, Ancient Languages and Mathematics; Miss Mary F. McAnally, of Memphis, Lady Principal, Natural Science, English Literature and Elocution; Miss Emma McLean, of Ohio, Mathematics, History, French, German and Latin; Miss Dolly Williams, Instrumental and Vocal Music and Miss Florence Briscoe Wells, of Louisville, Drawing and Painting. The patrons of the school are thoroughly pleased with those of the faculty who were here last session and are satisfied that Prof. Hubbard has chosen wisely in the other members of it.

The prospects are flattering for a full school. Prof. Hubbard deserves a liberal patronage for his efforts to make the school a most superior one and we hope he will receive it.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager.

The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

THE ladies continue to send four and five-leaf clovers for a chance in the drawing for our business manager. The latest is from West End beauty who plaintively inquires, "Will I be the fortunate one?" We hope so at any rate.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

Published Every Tuesday and Friday
—AT—
$2 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE
—When not so paid $2.50 will be charged.—

K. C. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Train leaves Rowland at 7:00 a. m., returning at 4:50 p. m.

L. & N. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Mail train going North.....12:31 p.m.
" " South.....1:31 p.m.
Express train " South.....1:57 p.m.
Local Freight North.....2:27 a.m.
" South.....3:50 a.m.
The latter trains also carry passengers.
The above is calculated on standard time. Solar time is about 20 minutes faster.

S. C. DAVIS,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,
MT. VERNON, KY.

Office next door to Whitehead's Drug Store.
Special attention given to diseases of children 277-4.

HARRY A. EVANS,
ANALYTICAL CHEMIST,
STANFORD, KY.

Engineering and Surveying in all branches.

FOR SALE

My New House on Main St.,
Stanford, Ky. For terms apply to Mr. W. H.
Higgins, Stanford, or to me at Danville, Ky.
32 LOTTIE N. HOLMES.

NOTICE!

I have secured the services of a competent Carriage Maker and am prepared to do any and all kinds of repairing to Buggies, Carriages, &c. Work entrusted to me will have my personal supervision. All work guaranteed. Prices reasonable.
WM. DAUGHERTY.

C. A. BENEDICT & CO.,
Well Drillers & Pump Adjusters,
STANFORD, KY.

Wells drilled to order and Pumps furnished at factory prices. 30

H. B. WILSON,

—With—

THOMPSON & BOYD, Manufacturers of Fine Saddles and Harness, in every style and finish known to the trade. Race and Trotting Equipments a specialty.
No. 33 East Main Street, LEXINGTON, KY.

THE NAPIER HOUSE,
LIBERTY, KY.

F. W. WARRINER. PROP'R.
I have leased the above Hotel and intend running it in first-class style in every particular. Special attention to commercial men. 33-2m

THE MYERS HOUSE

E. H. BURNSIDE, Proprietor

No Hotel in Kentucky has a better reputation, and its proprietor is determined that it shall be maintained.

He has recently added to its appointments

Pool and Billiard Parlors

—Also—

A First-Class Livery Stable

To accommodate the demands of his increased transient patronage. Best Turnouts furnished Commercial Travelers and others.

HALE'S WELL.

Season Opens June 1, '89.

Board from June 1 to July 1, per week.....$ 00
Cottage Rent from June 1 to July 1, per week 3 50
Board per week after July 1.....6 00
Cottage Rent per week after July 1.....5 50
Single Meal.....5 00
Horses well cared for, per week.....3 00
Everybody is cordially invited to visit us early in the season and get advantage of the reduced rates. Respectfully, A. L. SPOONAMORE, 26-2f P. O. Address, Stanford, Ky.

THE GALT HOUSE,
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY.

THE LARGEST AND FINEST HOTEL IN THE CITY.

RATES $2.50 TO $4 PER DAY. ACCORD-ING TO ROOMS.

TURKISH & RUSSIAN BATHS IN HOTEL

R. B. GEOGEGHAN, —SUCCESSION TO—

M'MICHAEL, THE HATTER,
511 47th AVENUE,
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY.

The Nobbiest & Most Stylish

—Stock of—

HATS,

Ever brought to the city of Louisville, now open including the world-renowned

KNOX & JOHN B. STETSON & CO'S. HATS

And also my own importation of English Hats and Caps. An elegant line of Canes and Lyne's Celebrated Umbrellas always on hand. Fine

SEAL SKIN SACQUES, CAPS,

Gloves and other Furs, a specialty. Orders outside of city solicited, perfect satisfaction guaranteed. Don't fail to order a NOBBI HAT. 22 iv

DISPERSING A TRAMP.

What Happened to Those Who Undertook It.

I was eating dinner at a farm house in Indiana when one of the children came in and announced that a highway tramp had called at the kitchen door and asked for a bite to eat. The farmer was a very short, very fat and very bald headed man, and he was postmaster at the corners and justice of the peace in and for the county. He had a son called James, another called Moses, and a hired man who was addressed as Towsler. He sent out word for the tramp to sit down and rest, and a laugh went round the table
he explained:

"After dinner I shall be pleased to show you how we encourage tramps in this section. This is evidently a new man to this part of the state, or he would never have called here."

After dinner we went out. The tramp was sitting under a cherry tree, looking as comfortable as you please, and evidently unsuspecting that anything except dinner was in store for him. He looked to me like a bad man to fool with, but the farmer didn't seem to read him that way.

"Now, then," he said, as he rubbed his fat hands together, "you will stand up."

"What fur?" asked the tramp.

"To be kicked! I am going to boot you from this spot down to that slivered telephone pole."

"But I object."

"Can't help that. As a fourth class postmaster of the United States of America I command you to arise."

"If I am kicked somebody else will get hurt!" cautioned the tramp as he got up.

"As one of the justices of the peace in and for this county I command you to disperse," said the farmer as he turned the tramp toward the gate and administered a kick.

Next instant he received a left hander on the nose which knocked him into a confused heap on the grass, and the tramp got out of his old coat and prepared for business.

"Towsler, pulverize him!" shouted the farmer as he struggled to his knees. "In the name of the United States I command you to knock him down!"

Towsler advanced, his big fists doubled up, but the tramp danced to the right and the left, and then sent in one on the hired man's commissary department, which doubled him up and laid him among the hollyhocks.

"James, Moses, make him prisoner," yelled the old man, as he plucked a handful of grass and held it to his bleeding nose.

The tramp chuckled. There was fun ahead.

The two boys were strapping young fellows, strong enough to knock down an ox, and they were willing to go in. As they stripped off the tramp backed up between two currant bushes, where they could not flank him, and as they advanced upon him he grinned all over. He played with them for a minute or two, and then drew a long breath, made three or four feints, and piled them on the grass together. Neither moved to get up for full two minutes. Meanwhile the tramp rested and looked over to me and quered:

"You ain't one of the crowd?"

"No."

"And don't want me to disperse?"

"Not particularly."

"All right. I don't think the United States and his gang want anything more of me just now, and as I have an engagement down the road, I'll move on. When they get washed up and the bandages on, tell 'em I used to scrap with the boys in Chicago in days gone by, and that I held myself in and let 'em off very mild.
Good-by, stranger. Ta, ta, old farty!"

And he had been gone ten minutes before the postmaster came over to me and whispered:

"Did you ever?"—New York Sun.

Lizzie's Wise Advice.

Mrs. X. is one of those by no means rare mortals whose discipline is much dependent upon her mood, while her mood in turn is much influenced by her body's comfort. It follows that the small daughter Katie is treated with more or less sternness, according to circumstances, a fact which she is quite shrewd enough to appreciate. One day recently Mrs. X. was reproving Katie in rather fretful tones, when the child looked up from her seat on the floor to observe with the preternatural gravity of 3 years:
"Oh, take a more comfortable chair,
mamma."—Boston Courier.

Could Take His Choice.

Long Haired Individual—Sir, I am a poet—

Editor—Yes, that's all right. Which would you prefer—to be clubbed to death by the devil, or thrown down the elevator?—The Epoch.

A Matter of Uncertainty.

"How does your husband like your new hat?"

"I don't know; he hasn't seen the bill
yet."—Troy Press.

TWO DIFFERENT IDEAS.

Visitor—Why are you crying, Tommy?

Tommy—Because mamma won't let me wear my hair long.

Visitor—Oh, you want to look like little Lord Fauntleroy, don't you, dear?

Tommy—Naw; I want to look like Buffalo Bill.—Chicago Journal.

CRISP CONDENSATIONS.

Hainesport, D. T., reports a shower of frogs.

Oxmoor, Ala., has a curiosity in the shape of a petrified pine stump weighing about 300 pounds.

In a recent wind which swept San Francisco bay many vessels dragged their anchors and were driven against each other.

Amelia Battle, a negro auntie of La Grange, Ga., claims that she had several children running around when the war of 1812 broke out.

The six Chinese companies of San Francisco have bought mining territory covering 200 square miles in Real del Castillo, Lower California. Price, $500,000.

A Virginia woman who keeps a toll on the Berryville highway has had to shoot three tramps thus far this spring, and she looks forward to an unusually brisk season in that line.

Mrs. E. B. McNulty, of Dawson, Ga., has the diploma given to her great-grandfather at Princeton college and signed by one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

It is alleged that the United States buys all the cheap tea grown in China, while the best grades go to England and France. In return, however, we send to China all the poorest and cheapest cannected goods.

The newest feature of personal adornment is made up of hairs from the tail of the African elephant made into watch guards and bracelets. The elephant is now becoming so scarce that his relics are said to be very fashionable.

A Pike county, Ga., man stabbed at two fighting water snakes with a long pole, and missed them. When he pulled the pole out of the mud he found that he had thrust through a seventy-four pound fish. This is a combined fish and snake story.

A curious result of the crowds in New York during the celebration was the difficulty experienced by residents in burying their dead. All available horses and carriages were pressed into the service of the sightseers, so that it was difficult to get any for funerals.

J. F. Oberry, of Kissimmee, Fla., heard a rumble in his hog pen and went out to investigate. He found a 600 pound bear devouring a pig, and, having no valid objections, went back to bed. He knows the bear weighed 600 pounds, as it was killed a day or two after.

News has been received in Mexico of the discovery in the state of Chiapas, near the ruins of Palenque, of a large city hidden in the depths of the forests.
Some buildings are five stories high and in a good state of preservation. There is a well paved road several miles in length still perceptible in the midst of a tropical forest.

In a Tarrytown sanitarium is a petrified prehistoric lizard, 11 feet and 1 inch long, 18 inches broad at the shoulders and 9 inches at the head and weighing 300 pounds. Its color is gray and its substance sandstone. The specimen, which is almost perfect, was exhumed on the shore of Charlestown lake, five miles from Farmersville, Province of Ontario, in July last.

The official figures of the United States census in 1790 were 3,929,326, of which number 695,655 were slaves. A short time after these figures appeared, Capt.
G. Inlay, Virginian, published an article in which he placed the population of this country in 1890 at 64,000,000, and was therefore supposed by his friends to be a visionary. His prediction was surprisingly accurate.

IDEAS FOR DRESS.

Feathers have been discarded for the summer.

The toque capote is a bonnet of youthful shape.

Bengaline dresses are in favor for afternoon receptions.

Maids of honor at weddings carry baskets of lilies of the valley.

Black and colored tulle bonnets are made for midsummer wear.

Silver lorgnettes are a shade more elegant than those of tortoise shell.

Bonnets for youthful matrons have strings that come from the back.

Very large ladies should wear plain fabrics without figures or stripes.

A wedding trousseau for a bride in England consists of eighty garments.

Straw bonnets for summer are almost as soft as lace and are held in shape by fine wire.

A shade of pink, which is not expressed by "salmon" or "old rose," is called veil color.

A lovely evening dress is made of a soft silk in a shade of yellow like the laburnum blossoms.

Young lady graduates wear low necked gowns when the commencement takes place in the evening.

A boot with a tric平 sole is an invention of latest date. Said boot, it is estimated, will last a lifetime.

There has been a report—not properly confirmed, however—that dress coats are to be lined with colored satin next season.

Bonnet strings are tiny pipings like milliner's folds, which pass under the chin and end in a rosette just below the left ear.